Federation of Democrats Formed In Chatham, Ont.

(By Associated Press.)
CHATHAM, Ont., May 17.—A new party has been organized in this city under promising auspices. It is to called the promising auspices. It is to called the Federation of Democrats of Canada. Little has been made public regarding the organization, but the preliminary meeting was largely attended and many citizens signed the membership roll. The Democrats are in favor of a nearer approach to the American system in Canada, particularly as to the popular election of officials.
